Happy holidays from JAR!

The purpose of a holiday newsletter is to keep friends and supporters updated on the JAR events in Shanghai. We hope to issue this news letter regularly in order to let you know how everything is going with JAR and our lovely pets.

Indeed, this X'mas season is a good time to tell you about JAR's achievements during this year, our plans for the future, and to express warm wishes for the year to come.

We thank all the people and institutions that made this year an excellent year for many animals in need, and to all the volunteers and foster parents that committed time and support, the donations received and the huge amount of love given to kittens, cats, puppies and dogs.

ABC & TNR Program

This year we introduced a new program to JAR's mission. The first part is called ABC (Animal Birth Control). Its agenda is to enhance our spaying/neutering program to reduce misery for unwanted animals by controlling the animal population that seems to be on the increase year by year. We hope to be able to re-home many of these spayed/neutered animals, but for various reasons – lack of homes, feral or anti-social nature of the stray, especially cats – sometimes the only recourse is to return the spayed/neutered animal back to the streets, where at least we know s/he won't continue to add to the stray population by procreating.

This leads to the second part of our program -TNR (Trap/Neuter/Return). We hope this option can become a respected and valuable option for animal control in Shanghai. We are currently doing TNR on a small scale, but with the great success of these operations, we hope now to help cover more ground by providing traps and training to other animal-lovers.

JAR Pets of the Month: Leoncio & Tomasa

Adoptable Pets: Leoncio & Tomasa

The rescuer came across Tomasa and Leoncio in the East West Restaurant in Jinqiao (Pudong) in the beginning of November 2010. Tomasa and Leoncio are 2 out of 11 kittens that reside outside the East West Restaurant, where a cabin has been built for them. However, JAR will gradually rescue all the kittens and spay the mother cat to prevent another batch of abandoned litters.

Tomasa is a beautiful female cat with big blue eyes and short white fur. She is always a little bit shy when she meets new people, but after a while she blossoms into a very affectionate cat ... looking for your attention and purring of happiness when you hold her.

Leoncio is a sweet and lovely male kitten with eyes of different colors

(blue and green) and long white fur. Given that his long fur makes him look like a small white lion he was named Leoncio (Spanish name that means Lion). Leoncio is no shy at all, and he will always enjoy to play and to be pet. One unique characteristic of Leoncio is that he does not meow at all (according to the Vet this can be a genetic inheritance in some cats).

Tomasa and Leoncio are very good friends, and truly enjoy each other's company. This pair of white friends are real foodies ... characteristic that probably has its origin in the fact that they both were rescued from outside the East West Restaurant!

Can you give them their forever loving home?

Finding an abandoned animal and fostering ...

This year several postings and interviews about JAR were published in different websites and magazines (TimeOut, CityWeekend, etc), and even we were shown in the local TV a few times. However, this year was also marked by the writing of two JAR articles that were published in Shanghaiist and in our blog.

The first one was meant to help people to know what to do when finding a stray animal (step-by-step instructions) and the second one was intended to inspire people to be foster parents for an animal rescue organization.

We are happy to say that these

It is hugely rewarding to see an animal move on to a happy home two articles were very well received, so we hope to write a few more during 2011 ...

If you have any topic or question in mind related to animals, please let us know ...

Venue: Papas Bierstube Restaurant, Hongmei Road 3338, Hongmei Pedestrian Street 22-24.
